

WOOLPERT.
GREAT PEOPLE. GREAT CLIENTS.
GREAT PROJECTS.

More than six decades of service. Because we've provided military planning, programming, environmental services, design, and implementation since the 1940s, we offer experience and expertise in great depth and breadth.

To date we've completed federal planning and design projects for more than 150 U.S. Air Force bases, Army posts, Marine Corps bases, and Navy activities, and delivered more than 300 projects to repeat military clients in the United States and abroad.

Woolpert's federal planning and design teams:

- Military planners
- Land use planners
- Site planners
- Facility programmers
- Airfield planners
- Natural resource planners
